

Center on Assets, Education, and Inclusion (AEDI) Webinar

Savings Patterns and Asset Accumulation in Children's Savings Account (CSA) Programs: San Francisco's Kindergarten to College (K2C), New Mexico's Prosperity Kids, Promise Indiana, and Maine's Harold Alfond College Challenge

12:00-2:30PM Central Time

Agenda

12:30-12:40PM (with allowance for a 12:33PM start): Welcome, from AEDI's new home at the University of Michigan School of Social Work (Willie Elliott)

- A. Reports and other publications available on new website
- B. Details re: move in AEDI's latest quarterly newsletter

12:40-12:55PM State of the Field (Moderated by Melinda Lewis)

Looking back to your early days investing in children's asset initiatives, what about today's CSA landscape would have most surprised you then? What do you see as the most significant challenges facing the CSA field in the next 2-3 years? What questions do you want to see prioritized in CSA research?

- A. Frank DeGiovanni, Ford Foundation

12:55-1:15PM Program Update and Savings Findings from K2C

- A. Sarika Abbi – K2C Program Description (10 minutes)
- B. Nick Sorensen – K2C Savings Findings (10 minutes)

1:15-1:30PM Program Update and Savings Findings from Prosperity Kids

- A. Ona Porter – Prosperity Kids Program Description (10 minutes)
- B. Megan O'Brien – Prosperity Kids Savings Findings (5 minutes)

1:30-1:45PM Program Update and Savings Findings from Promise Indiana

- A. Clint Kugler and Phil Maurizi – Promise Indiana Program Description (10 minutes)
- B. Megan O'Brien – Promise Indiana Savings Findings (5 minutes)

1:45-2:00PM Program Update and Savings Findings from the Harold Alfond College Challenge

- A. Colleen Quint – HACC Program Description (10 minutes)
- B. Megan O'Brien – HACC Savings Findings (5 minutes)

2:00-2:15 Takeaways (Willie Elliott)

2:15-2:30PM: Questions (facilitated by Melinda Lewis)